Global Cities Retail Guide
Cape Town is the second most populous city in South Africa after Johannesburg and is the provincial capital of Western Cape. It is the seat of National Parliament and is also the Legislative capital of the country. It is the tourist capital of South Africa with its first class beaches, fine dining and shopping destinations. It is arguably the most multicultural city in the world and is a major destination for immigrants and expatriates. It is also the economic hub of the Western Cape.

Today, Cape Town is divided into its main City Bowl- an area surrounded by Signal Hill, Lion’s Head, Table Mountain and Devil’s Peak- as well as its northern and southern suburbs and the Atlantic Seaboard and the South Peninsula. The City Bowl includes Cape Town’s main business district and its world famous harbour.

The city centre of Cape Town is located on the Cape Peninsula. The famous Table Mountain forms the backdrop of the city and rises to an elevation of 3,300 feet (1,000 meters). The rest of the city is situated on the Cape Peninsula between the various peaks jutting into the Atlantic Ocean.
